THE RETURN VOYAGE OF BANSHEE CUTTER

COFFEE GOLDEN ALE

"... The ghostly crew scurried to and fro, hoisting mainsails and swabbing decks. Envivified by my new coffe-laced golden ale, they were a veritable gyre of activity. We were making great time. And the trip had been pleasant so far.

I've taken enough spectral conveyance that the ghosts did not scare me. It helped that they were all wearing little ghost boat shoes..."

Aromas of a light roast with slight characters of citrus and honey roll off the frothing head, leading to a crisp coffee sweetness. The balanced acidity of the coffee blends perfectly with the light malty characters, leading to a brilliantly smooth, latte-like creaminess to the brew.
