IT'S LIKE SPUTNIK... A VIRTUAL PLANETOID

- ★ We really kilt it with Old Chub. The robust malt flavors work well juxtaposed with spicy food and the smoky character makes creamy dessert flavors stand out.
- ★ Scottish style craft beer sales have increased about 9% vs last year
- ★ Brands above 6% ABV have increased 16% year over year
- ★ Craft beers in the 7% - 10% ABV range own 20% of the total craft market and they're up 4.2 share points since 2013

Old Chub is a broddingnagian celebration of aggressively shattering the status quo. This jaw-dropping Scottish strong ale (8% ABV, 30 IBUs) strays far from conventions, as it's brewed with a recklessly bodacious amount of malted barley and specialty grains, and a dash of beechwood-smoked malt. It features semi-sweet flavors of cocoa and coffee, and a wee bit of smoke. It's a powerful, head-turning trip for malt heads and folks who think they don't dig dark beer.

In 2002, our funky little Colorado grown brew-pub started stuffing our huge, voluminously hopped mutha of a pale ale in a can (Dale's Pale Ale). Cans keep beer fresher, longer by eliminating the damaging effects of light and ingressed oxygen while being infinitely recyclable and portable . . . taking them where your next soul saving adventure takes you.
